

Rotable Repairs Ltd

Standard Warranty Terms

1. Rotable Repairs Ltd (Herein called the 'Seller') warrants to its customer (Herein called the 'Buyer') that from the date of certification, all equipment services by the seller will be free from defects in material and workmanship and under recommended use and service will conform to the requirements for which the equipment was intended.

2. The seller's obligation under this warranty is limited to repairing or at the seller's option, replacing at its facility or at the buyer's site any defective equipment or part returned by the buyer to the seller in accordance with the following: -

(a) Overhauled Equipment.

Equipment sent to the seller by the buyer for overhaul will have been disassembled, cleaned, inspected, reworked, reassembled and tested per the original equipment manufacturer's applicable overhaul or maintenance manual. This equipment will carry a warranty of twelve (12) months after the date of certification on workmanship and all mechanical assemblies replaced at the time of overhaul.

(b) Other Service Actions.

Equipment sent to the seller by the buyer for service actions other than overhaul carry a warranty of six (6) months from the date of certification, limited to the repair and replacement of parts and/or subassemblies replaced during previous service action and workmanship.

(c) Notification Period.

Notification of any defect claimed under 2 (a) or 2 (b) above must be given to the seller within twenty-one (21) days after discovery of such defect.

3. Except for a warranty of title and the warranty set forth in paragraph 1 of the above there are no warranties, expressed, implied or implied by law, applicable to the equipment furnished under these terms and except as specifically set forth herein.

The seller makes no warranty, expressed, implied or merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose and the seller shall have no other obligation or liability, whether under these terms or otherwise on account of such equipment.

In no event shall the seller be liable for special or consequential damages.

4. Limitations applicable to this warranty.

The seller will be relieved of any obligations under this warranty if: -

- (a) The data plate (As applicable) has been removed.
- (b) The part has been modified, altered or opened without written consent.
- (c) The part has suffered misuse or has negligently been damaged after receipt by the buyer.
- (d) The part is fitted to an aircraft and becomes worn to limits prior to the end of the warranty period.
